3.1 What is social media

Social media consists of tools such as websites and applications that allow users to create and share content and to participate in social networking. Social media may include:

- (a) Social networks, such as Facebook and LinkedIn;
- (b) Media sharing networks, such as Snapchat, Instagram, Soundcloud and YouTube;
- (c) Bookmarking and content curation networks, such as Pinterest;
- (d) Corporate networks, such as SharePoint and Skype;
- (e) Blogging networks, such as WordPress or Newshub;
- (f) Micro-blogging networks, such as Twitter and Tumblr;
- (g) Discussion forums, such as Speechbubble and Whirlpool;
- (h) Wikis, such as Wikipedia;
- (i) Online gaming networks, such as World of Warcraft and Second Life; and
- (j) Sharing economy websites, such as eBay, Gumtree and Uber.

3.2 How we use social media

We have official social media accounts that we use to share information with the public and answer general queries. Only authorised staff can respond to the public on our behalf on social media. This includes responses from our official social media accounts:

- (a) Twitter <https://twitter.com/Allkemlithium?lang=en>
- (b) Facebook <https://facebook.com/Allkemresourceslimited>
- (c) LinkedIn <https://au.linkedin.com/company/Allkem-consulting-engineers>
