

Storydoing

Want to build on everything we've achieved so far?
Want to take our industry even further?
Welcome to The Kafrit Group.

By building more synergies between us, we can create opportunities beyond us.
In farming, communication, construction, every industry that owes its progress and potential to plastic.

We can empower the people, passions and ideas that will advance our industry's future.

We can unite all the good we do, and achieve things that are truly great.

We can bring our ideas together to create disruptive innovations, and cooperate as we lead the way to better plastic solutions for our customers.

And we can turn our focus on customers experience into a new vision for our future.

At Kafrit Group, everything comes together. People, talent, technology.
Anything with the ability to help us adapt to the future and become better every day.
No barriers. No fear. No limits.

Are you in?

The Kafrit Group
Working together for the future of plastics.

Purpose

Our purpose is to unite talent and technology to drive the future of plastics, together.
